

The European Commission is looking for specialists in customs and taxation

The European Commission is currently looking for highly talented and motivated administrators (AD7) in the field of customs and taxation. The new members of the civil service will mainly be recruited by the department responsible for EU policies on taxation and customs.

In the field of customs, the duties may include drafting and analysing customs legislation as consolidated in the Union Customs Code Package and in the Community Customs Tariff, corresponding implementing provisions and other pertaining rules, as well as in other specific customs domains like customs controls, the process of customs' modernisation and/or its IT applications. You may also be required to represent and negotiate on behalf of the Institution at EU and international level.

In the field of taxation, the duties may include analysing direct and/or indirect taxation issues, making a legal assessment under the applicable tax or state aid rules and procedures, analysing their impacts and presenting legal drafts or preparing economic analysis of those issues. You may be asked to develop communication activities in the area of your work and negotiate at international level in the areas of economic analysis and evaluation of taxes, direct and indirect taxation.

To apply, you will need a university degree of at least 4 years followed by at least 6 years' professional experience related to the nature of the duties or a university degree of at least 3 years followed by at least 7 years' professional experience related to the duties. For both profiles, you must have a thorough knowledge of one of the 24 EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of either English or French. You must be an EU citizen. Please note that you may only apply for one profile.

As an employer, the Institutions and Agencies of the EU offer a community of expertise with a wide range of opportunities to broaden your learning, enhance your skills, and develop your career. Respect for cultural diversity and promotion of equal opportunities are founding principles of the EU. You will be working in multicultural, international and diverse teams to benefit the lives of over 500 million EU citizens and beyond.

You can apply as of 11 October and the deadline for applications is 13 November 2018 at 12.00 (midday,) Brussels time.

For more information on the selection requirements, procedures and how to apply, please visit customs-taxation.eu-careers.eu. You can find out more about EPSO's equal opportunities policy on our dedicated page.

Reference: EPSO/AD/363/18

Follow EU Careers on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, YouTube and Instagram